TEN TO BE INDUCTED IN UWHC TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

(Jersey City, N.J.)—United Way of Hudson County (UWHC) will honor Dr. Sue Henderson, president of New Jersey City University, and Daryl Harrison Rand, president and CEO of HarrisonRand Advertising, with the Congresswoman Mary T. Norton Memorial Award at a gala luncheon on Wednesday, October 29 from 12-2 pm. The event, sponsored by Jersey City Medical Center, will attract 200 business and civic leaders.

“Congresswoman Norton, as the first woman elected in her own right to represent New Jersey, was a groundbreaker,” Dan Altilio, president and CPO of UWHC said. “Dr. Henderson, is also breaking new ground as the first woman to be president of NJCU. Ms. Harrison Rand works tirelessly on behalf of our community as chair of the Hudson County Chamber of Commerce.”

Love of Hudson County is a common thread among all those being recognized. UWHC will induct 10 individuals into its Tocqueville Society which showcases local philanthropic leaders and volunteer champions who have devoted time, talent and funds to create long-lasting changes by tackling our most serious issues.

2014 inductees are Harold Bauer of Royce Leather; Theodore J. Bragg of BNY Mellon; Secaucus Mayor Michael Gonnelli; Mark Kemper of UPS; Eli Manning of the New York Giants; Michael J. Nesspor of BNY Mellon; Joseph F. Scott of Jersey City Medical Center; Brian and Patricia Shea of BNY Mellon; Fred Tomczyk of TD Ameritrade; and Maroa Velez of Brown Brothers Harriman.

Sponsorships, tables, tickets and journal ads are available by contacting UWHC or by visiting their website at www.unitedwayhudson.org. Space is limited.

The United Way of Hudson County improves lives by mobilizing the caring power of our community to advance the common good. Established in 1936, United Way of Hudson County envisions a world where all individuals and families achieve their human potential through education, income stability and healthy lives. Our staff, partners and volunteers are committed to ending the cycle of poverty by addressing homelessness, housing and hunger, and by giving our children the skills they need to succeed in life. With the power to convene, United Way of Hudson County is a first responder to the big issues confronting our neighborhoods.
